Section Title: Benefits Administration - Adjudication and Compensation
Subject: Public Interest Emergency Actions
Effective Date: January 1, 2018

A. POLICY

When a worker, during the course of employment, provides assistance to a member of the general public in distress, it will not be considered to be a removal from the employment if it can reasonably be shown that the worker's assistance was necessary and would have, if possible, been sanctioned or directed by the employer.

Under Schedule J of policy 31.05.10, Cost Relief/Cost Transfer - Class E, cost relief may be provided to Class-E employers for the claim costs involving public interest emergency actions.
