Section Title: Benefit Administration - Other Entitlements
Subject: Non-Resident Dependants
Effective Date: Sept 1, 1984

A. POLICY

When a dependant of a worker fatally injured in a compensable accident is not a resident of Manitoba, but is a resident of Canada, the benefits entitlement of the dependant will be the same as if the dependant did reside in Manitoba.

When a dependant of a worker fatally injured in a compensable accident is not a resident of Canada, the benefits entitlement of the dependent will be equal to the minimum compensation rate in effect in Manitoba at the time of the accident.

When a higher rate of compensation would be payable under the compensation law in force in the jurisdiction where the dependant resides, an upward adjustment may be made, limited by the maximum compensation payable in Manitoba.

This policy applies only to those accidents occurring up to and including December 31, 1991.
