

MHCA event March 8, 2018 was well attended by association members who took an active interest in the use of technology to teach safety.

